Any successful children's program thrives on the support and assistance of the families that partake in the programming. I would love help and I know that there are many talented parents and parishioners that would like to help. Please let me know if you have a special talent or would like to help. Ways parents have helped in the past are:

- Bring snacks to an event
- Chaperone
- Take pictures
- Play music
- Help with Vacation Bible School
- Teach a Sunday School class
- Help create and organize costumes for the pageant or any drama skit
- Help with the pageant
- Come up with good ideas and help implement them
- Drive to an event

Thanks! Jacki Petrino
